The First Lesson

Revelation 21:1-7 (p. 1041)

¹ Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ² And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³ And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. ⁴ He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away."

⁵ And he who was seated on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true." ⁶ And he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give from the spring of the water of life without payment. ⁷ The one who conquers will have this heritage, and I will be his God and he will be my son.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Mark 16:1-8 (p. 853)

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

¹ When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. ² And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. ³ And they were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?" ⁴ And looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled back—it was very large. ⁵ And entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were alarmed. ⁶ And he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen; he is not here. See the place where they laid him. ⁷ But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you." ⁸ And they went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had seized them, and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

THE OFFERTORY

Anthem

Sing Ye to the Lord

Edward Cuthbert Bairstow 1874–1946

Sing ye to the Lord, for He hath triumphed gloriously.

Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath He cast into the sea.

Mighty Victim from the sky, Hell's fierce powers beneath Thee lie;
Thou hast conquered in the fight, Thou hast brought us life and light;
Now no more can death appal, Now no more the grave enthrall;
Thou hast opened Paradise, And in Thee Thy Saints shall rise.

Alleluia! Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING Eucharistic Prayer A

BCP 361

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Congregation kneeling

Celebrant: Holy and gracious Father: in your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

*People: Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.*

Celebrant: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer to you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.
AMEN.

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

*People: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.*

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion. Please be guided by the ushers to either the front or back rail. You may sip the wine from the common cup or intinct [dip] your wafer into the smaller intinction cup. If you would like to receive a blessing instead of Communion, please come to the rail and cross your arms over your chest. Everyone is welcome to receive a blessing.

Prayer ministers are available during communion in the prayer chapel located to the left of the front altar rail, and can offer prayers for all prayer needs as well as for birthdays, anniversaries, and special blessings.

Anthem

Joy Is Come

Andrew Carter b. 1939

Joy is come! Eastertide!
Sing we all far and wide, See the stone rolled aside,
Christ our Lord is risen, Bursting from his prison.
*Let the sound, sound, sound,
Ring around, round, round,
And the song now rebound: Christ the Lord is risen!*

Joy is come! Easter Day!
Join the dance, homage pay, Christ the Lord lights our way,
From the tomb now breaking, Satan's power shaking.
*Let the song, song, song
Echo long, long, long,
Shout it loud, sing it strong: Christ the Lord is risen!*

Joy is come! Easter morn!
With your Lord greet the dawn, He endured crown of thorn
And the bitter nailing, Faithful and unfailing.
*Tidings tell, tell, tell,
Chant it well, well, well,
Risen Christ in us dwell, O'er the cross prevailing.*

Easter joy may we bring,
Welcome, Lord, heaven's King, Winter turns into spring,
Darkness overtaking, And our spirits waking.
*Praises flow, flow, flow,
Voices grow, grow, grow,
Sounding far "Gloria in excelsis Deo! In excelsis Deo!"*
